

KAYSVILLE CHORUS CONTEST

Scores 77 Out of Possible 90 Points in State Sunday School Eisteddfod.

SUGAR HOUSE ALSO VICTOR

TAKES PRIZE FOR CHORUS OF FOURTEEN VOICES.

The state Sunday-school Eisteddfod was held at Saltair last evening. The entertainment consisted of competitive singing between the various choirs from different parts of the city and state.

The main contest for choirs of thirty voices was won by the Kaysville choir, which scored 77 out of a possible 90 points. The judges were: Arthur Petersen, J. J. Daynes and Hugh W. Douglas, and the decisions were made on the intonation, interpretation and quality of the competitive songs.

Comment of Judges.

In giving the decision to the Kaysville choir, the judges stated that the general rendition of this piece by the winning choir was good and the tone quality excellent, with the exception of the tenors who forced the singing at the final climax. The judges declared the Kaysville vocalists to be a good body of singers and said that they deserved the prize.

The other choirs of thirty voices contending were the Twenty-second place choir, which was awarded second place with a standing of 71; the Mammoth choir, which was marked 68, and the Twenty-seventh ward choir, which scored 61.

The Kaysville choir was under the baton of their leader, Dr. Grant, and the prize awarded it was a check for $40.

Sugar House Gets Prize.

In the second class for choirs of fourteen voices the Sugar House choir was the only entry and it was given the prize of $25. This choir was led by Angus Aiston, who is but 22 years old.

A large audience heard the singing, excursions having brought many visitors from adjacent towns.

Professor Charles Kent was master of ceremonies and introduced the competing choirs. At the close of the contest the entire audience sang "America" under the leadership of Mr. Kent.

A great many vocalists of note were in the audience and the majority of the music from the many throats floated out of the great open air pavilion at the lake.

NEW POSTAL INSPECTOR.

James Durand Fills Place Vacated by F. C. Sharp.

Postoffice Inspector James Small, whose headquarters are in Denver, Colo., was in Salt Lake yesterday. It is understood that Mr. Small is engaged to do the work at the postoffice in Bingham. It is possible that some changes will be made there.

Postoffice Inspector James Durand has been appointed to fill the vacancy made in the local department by the resignation of Inspector Frank C. Sharp. Mr. Durand will arrive from Washington in a few days to attend to his duties.

COULD NOT REST NIGHT OR DAY

With Irritating Skin Humor—Whole Body Affected—Scalp Itched All the Time and Hair Began to Fall Out—Wonderful Result From

APPLICATION OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I am never without Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment since I tried them last summer. About the latter part of July my whole body began to itch, and I did not take much notice of it at first, but it began to get worse all the time, and then I began to get uneasy and tried all kinds of baths and other remedies that were recommended for skin humors; but I became worse all the time. My hair began to fall out and my scalp itched all the time. Especially at night, just as soon as I would get in bed and get warm, my whole body would begin to itch and my finger nails would keep it irritated, and it was not long before I could not rest night or day. A friend asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I did, and the first application helped me wonderfully. For about four weeks I would take a hot bath every night and then apply the Cuticura Ointment to my whole body; and I kept getting better and by the time I used four boxes of Cuticura I was entirely cured, and my hair stopped falling out, but I continue to use the Cuticura on my scalp. It keeps all the dandruff out and scalp is always clean. I always use Cuticura Ointment on my face after shaving, and have found nothing to equal it. I will never be without it." D. E. Blankenship, 319 N. Del. St., Indianapolis, Ind.

RECOMMENDED TO ALL MOTHERS

"I have used Cuticura Ointment for chafing of infants, and as they grew older all skin diseases were given treatment with that and the Cuticura Soap. I never found it necessary to call a doctor, as these Remedies are a sure cure, if used as directed. I am glad to recommend them to all mothers." Sincerely yours, Mrs. F. A. Kennard, June 21, 1905. FINAL SPORT THE TIPPING CAR

Record Chasers Leave Ogden, After Some Necessary Repairs, for Pacific Coast.

With a "Honk! Honk!" the big two-cylinder twenty-two-horsepower Buick touring car which is chasing across the continent in an effort to break the record from New York to San Francisco, came to a stop in Hagerty took place at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Little and Hagerty, the two war correspondents who had come here to meet the party, were still asleep. They were soon awakened and hustled into some clothes. The machine was then taken to the repair shop for repairs.

Some where out in Wyoming they had broken a spring and the repair stuff that should have been sent here ahead of the auto failed to arrive, but these little mishaps did not worry the plucky fellows, who had a lot of time to spare while waiting for the arrival of the car. A new spring had to be forged, making it necessary for the party to lay over here until past 1 o'clock. Hagerty took his place in the tonneau of the machine, relieving one of the others, who had hung to it since Friday last, and with a new twist, the party pulled away from Twenty-fifth street and Washington avenue at 1:15 o'clock. The machine was in good shape, and together with Manager W. J. Mead and another of the party, left Ogden on the Overland Limited at 1:20 o'clock for Wells, Nev., where they will meet the machine, and where Little will take his turn with the automobile.

From Wyoming to Ogden there were a host of difficulties to overcome. Recent rains over the mountain country had flooded the stream to the size of rivers, and numerous times the machine was barely able to flounder through. Several hours were lost crossing two creeks near the Weber canyon, and the constant use of the roads had cut deep ruts, leaving the center of the road high. As the body of the Buick machine lay low, it was necessary several times for the party to unload and dig away the road before the machine could proceed. Near a little outside the city the high speed gear gave way and back in the hills the oil tubes leading to the clutch became clogged and the clutches were jammed tight and immovable when Ogden was finally reached.

The machine was plastered with a thick coat of mud but was in fair condition. The front axle is slightly bent and may have to be straightened before the end of the journey is reached. At 3 o'clock this morning the party will have been 12 days out from New York, and Little expects to succeed in breaking the record of 15 days 6 hours if they have good luck after leaving Ogden.

From Ogden to Salt Lake City, the route will be around the north end of the lake and across the Promontory mountains. Several shots of the party were taken here during the brief stop.

The machine was repaired, no time was lost in making the start, and at a thirty mile per hour clip the machine shot along Washington avenue toward the city. The street car company has decided to give the men the use of the car for this purpose.

NEWS OF THE COURTS.

The Bank of Commerce of Salt Lake yesterday sued William H. Tibbals to collect a balance of $5,839.61 alleged to be due on a promissory note of $5,500, dated Aug. 1, 1901. The note was given for interest at the rate of 8 per cent from Oct. 19, 1902.

Judge Morse yesterday continued the injunction suit of the state board of corrections against the city of Salt Lake until Sept. 15. The board is seeking to restrain the city from stopping the water supply at the state prison. The temporary order will remain in force until the hearing.

Olivia M. Starmer yesterday sued the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railway company for $2,000 damages alleged to have been done her property at South Temple street by the fact that the railroad runs in close proximity to it, and that trains and locomotives are constantly passing the premises.

Theodore Peterson yesterday sued the Garfield Smelting company for $1,000 damages for alleged personal injuries. He alleges on June 20, while employed as a carpenter on a trestle at Garfield his foot was so injured that two of his toes had to be amputated. He has a similar suit pending against the American Smelting & Refining company.

The suit of R. R. Anderson, trustee of the bankrupt estate of B. H. Schettler, against Elizabeth Perry Schettler was dismissed by stipulation yesterday. This was a case where the defendant had property in her name which it was claimed belonged to the bankrupt estate, and which the court sought to compel her to convey to the estate. The terms upon which the suit was dismissed were not stated. The property consists of the west half of lot 1, block 69, plat D.

FISHBURN OF BRIGHAM CITY

Another Candidate Bobs Up for Congressional Nomination at the Hands of Republicans.

Announcement was made here yesterday of the candidacy of Frank W. Fishburn of Brigham City for congressman. With this announcement comes the statement that the Box Elder delegation will support Fishburn against Howard Christensen. If this statement is correct it is safe to say that the blow is the most severe that has yet been delivered against Congressman Howard. There is no doubt but what Fishburn would receive considerable support from Weber county. There are those here who refuse to support Howell on account of the appointment of Glassman to the postoffice and who are not altogether satisfied with the selection of Christensen. Fishburn is quite well known here and has a host of friends who will go out and work not only for his nomination but for his election as well. He is a member of the state legislature and is said to be a good legislator. By many of the prominent Republicans he is considered a logical candidate.

It is being made here to have President L. W. Shurtliff of Ogden come out for the state senatorship this fall on the Republican ticket to fill the shoes of Senator David McKay. Mr. Shurtliff has already served one term in the state senate and his nomination is looked upon with favor by many of the prominent Republicans.

LOOKING FOR TRADE.

Ogden Business Men Will Make a Trip to Ely, Nevada.

At a meeting of the business men of Ogden held at the Weber Club rooms last evening it was decided to inaugurate a "get acquainted" trip to Ely, Nev., some time next month. The president and secretary of the club were authorized to complete arrangements for a special train to carry the Ogden people. It was stated that the rate of $10.00 a person could be secured. The special train will probably leave here late in the evening, arriving at Ely early in the morning. A whole day would be thus spent at that place and the return trip also made at night. This will enable the business men to make the trip and lose but one day's time. The business men of Ogden feel that Ely is a direct tributary to this city and that they are entitled to the business from that place.

Requiem High Mass.

At St. Joseph's catholic church at 10 o'clock yesterday morning a requiem high mass was celebrated over the remains of Mrs. M. J. Hogan. The services were impressive and were attended by a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. Father P. M. Cushman chanted the mass and delivered the funeral sermon. Members of the church choir rendered appropriate selections, and there were many beautiful floral offerings. Interment was in the Mountain View cemetery.

Will Observe the Day.

In connection with the Labor day exercises to be held in Ogden, Sept. 3, the street car employees' union, on account of their not being able to participate in the parade, have decided to observe the day in their cars. The car will be decorated with bunting, flags, etc., and will have "487" the number of the local lodge, on the front. The street car company has decided to give the men the use of the car for this purpose.

ACTS AS HIS OWN JUDGE

William Barden Pronounces Sentence Upon Himself—Other Police Court Incidents.

William Barden acted as his own judge in the police court yesterday and sentenced himself to ten days' imprisonment. He was arrested for drunkenness, which developed into a bad case of delirium tremens. He expressed a desire to be locked up for a while.

"About how long would you suggest?" asked Judge Diehl.

"Ten days," replied Barden.

"So is ordered," said the judge.

Richard Mooney, an "Injun," who imbibed heap much "red eye," was released from custody Tuesday afternoon by Judge Diehl, on the condition that he return to the reservation and drink no more fire water. He told the judge that other "Injuns" had coaxed him to drink, though he told them it was wrong.

Eric Ardlia and John Oja, Finns, the forged with a suit and a hat, and the latter with drunkenness, were unable to plead in police court Tuesday afternoon because of their inability to speak English. Their cases were set for this afternoon and in the meantime arrangements were made to supply an interpreter. The pair was arrested Ardlia was pounding his fellow-countryman on the head with a large rock.

Mrs. Lizzie Steins told the judge Tuesday afternoon in police court that her arrest for disturbing the peace was a mistake, that the real offenders were boys in her neighborhood. City Attorney Daly was not ready for trial and the case was set for Thursday afternoon.

Jacob Smith, a veteran who ran away during the soldier's home, pleaded guilty to drunkenness in Tuesday afternoon's session of police court. Judge Diehl gave him twenty days, but told Smith that if arrangements could be made to take him back to the soldiers' home the sentence would be revoked.

AMUSEMENTS

Zinn's Musical Travesty company is now fairly launched in its week's run in the clever singing comedy of "Fra Diavolo Up to Date," throughout which Frances Grey as the bandit chief, Cad Franks as the innkeeper's daughter, Sadie Ainsley, Mildred Eddy, Horace Mann, Gus Mortimer, J. W. Clifford, Charles Merkel and Imogen Mansfield, all improve the excellent opportunities afforded them to display their cleverness. Frances Grey makes an ideal bandit, and carries her part with a swing and dash. Cad Franks captivates with her cleverness. This is the final week of the Georgia Harper season at the Grand theater, and the admirers of that clever actress, who are many in Salt Lake, are filling the cozy playhouse each evening and matinee. "The White Slave," which was the offering for the first half of the week, and which has been a pleasing production, will be withdrawn after the matinee and evening performance of today and "Camille," that masterpiece of Dumas, will be offered for the balance of the week and the termination of the Harper engagement, up to and including Saturday night, with the usual family matinee thereafter. In offering this play for her final appearance in Salt Lake for some time to come, Miss Harper feels she is presenting her best role.
